New Boats To Watch Out For In 2015

The year begins with the launch of exciting new models of various international boat brands as they roll out their 2015 offers. We've picked five best boats we feel are most suited to own in India! Lets begin with the Regal 2800 (2015) – Regal knows that people expect many amenities in the boats they buy, even if they are smaller boats and that's exactly what they've set out to achieve with the 2800. Whether you are buying a boat for the first time or you already own a bigger boat but want to downsize, with the Regal 2800 you won't be compromising on the quality or the many amenities it comes with.

SAILOR SPEAK

Making Of A Sailor – An Interview With Cyrus Heerji

Way back in 1983, Cyrus Heerji became a member of the RBYC. Since joining, he has held different positions, such as Commodore, Hon. Sailing Secretary, Captain of Boats and Vice President. His love for sailing has seen him promote the sport, arrange weekend races and organize coastal cruises. He has been regularly participating in these Club events and introducing new comers to the sport of sailing. Cyrus Heerji shares with us his journey as a sailor and the making of Mumbai's oldest sailing school – Fair Winds!
