BOAT IN FOCUS

The New Hanse 345 – Perfect For New & Experienced Sailors

She's exactly what you'd expect - fun to sail, comfortable to cruise, easy to manoeuvre and great value! Hanse excels at providing a home-from-home and the 345 has everything you need to sail away without compromising comfort. Hanse 345 follows very successful and popular Hanse 355 as its downsized model. But nothing is lost: classical features by Hanse are improved meaning the balance and the sailing performance are better. This yacht is perfect for families with small kids and sailing with hired skipper on a charter yacht. Whether you're a new or experienced skipper ...

SAILING IN INDIA

NDA Fever Grips The Sailing Community!

With the onset of monsoons begin the inland sailing events in India and the first in line that's eagerly awaited by all sailors across the country is the National Inland Enterprise Championship (NIEC) at the scenic Peacock Bay, Khadakwasla Lake, organized by the National Defense Academy (NDA). It is considered as the kumbh mela of sailing for all sailors who participate, whether you are experienced or a beginner! There's just no way you want to miss this particular event. India Yacht Page chatted up with a few sailors and here's what they had to say! Gulshan Chuneekar, won the championship last year..

Sea-Kayaker Sandy Robson Paddles On Upward India's East Coast

So far, from the seat of her kayak, Sandra has seen Germany, Austria, Slovakia, Hungary, Croatia, Serbia, Macedonia, Greece, Turkey, Cyprus, Sri Lanka and India. Meeting the local people and the cultural interaction has been a highlight of the trip for Ms Robson. The locals in Greece were baffled that a girl could make it all the way through the Aegean Sea in a kayak. The Aegean is renowned for its Katabatic winds and yachtsmen told her it would be very risky. Sandy says, "I don't think they realize what a kayak can do, or a girl for that matter." In India it is also quite unusual for a woman to be
